

2018 OSU/NCCOS Natural Infrastructure Advisory Board Meeting

Hatfield Marine Science Center – Newport, OR

April 12-13, 2018

Day 1: April 12th

9:15 am – Hatfield Marine Science Center in Newport

Library Seminar Room, Guin Library

Welcome, Project Overview, and Background for Field Visit

Steven Dundas – OSU Applied Economics, COMES

Comprehensive project overview, key milestones and new results on multiple research pathways, and introduction of three destinations to provide context to our research pathways

10 am – Depart Newport (transportation provided for all)

11:15 – Dune and Beach Management on the Oregon Coast

Bob Straub State Park in Pacific City

12:15 – Lunch in Pacific City

1:45 – Coastline Stabilization Issues in Oregon

Pacific Sands Resort, Neskowin oceanfront

3:15 – Salt Marsh Restoration and Salmon

Salmon River Estuary, Knight Park in Otis

5:00 – Arrive back at HMSC (Newport)

6:00 – Dinner at Local Ocean Seafoods in Newport

Day 2: April 13th

9 am Welcome and Introductions

Steven Dundas – Applied Economics, COMES

9:15 Estuary Pathway

Dave Lewis – Applied Economics

Sally Hacker – Integrative Biology

Caitlin Magel – Integrative Biology

Cassie Finer – Applied Economics

10:45 – Coffee break

11:00 – Coastal Protection Pathway

Steven Dundas – Applied Economics

Jason Beasley – Applied Economics

12:30 – Working Lunch (Dune survey to be distributed @ 1pm)

1:30 – Dune Landscapes Survey Discussion

Tu Nguyen – Applied Economics

Dave Kling – Applied Economics

2:00 – Dune Landscapes Project Discussions

Sally Hacker – Integrative Biology

Paige Hovenga – CEOAS

David Kling – Applied Economics

2:30 – Outreach and Engagement Discussion

3 pm – Adjourn