Students,

Hope everyone is doing okay with your classes, midterms, etc. Here are some announcements for this week and I will be sending out the Winter Term Registration info shortly.

Departmental Main Phone Line:
Just to let everyone know in case you dial our main phone number of (541) 737-2942. That number is no longer available. The new Departmental main line is (541) 737-1398.

Last day to change to S/U grading or withdraw from a course:
The deadline for this is Thursday, November 10. The link below is for changing to S/U. You will need to get the S/U forms in by Noon on Thursday, November 10. https://registrar.oregonstate.edu/change-grading-basis

Quiz Bowl Information:
We have a Quiz Bowl Team that you could be a part of. Please see the attached flyer for more information. You are welcome to stop by on November 2 in 200C Ballard Extension Hall from 11:30 – 1:30 to see what it is all about and have some free pizza.

Study Recruitment!
What: sign up to take part and get paid for an applied economics study!
How: click on the link here
How much: $23 on average, more or less based on your choices
When:

- Tuesday, October 25th 5:00 PM;
- Wednesday, October 26th 12:00 PM;
- Thursday, October 27th 5:30 PM; or
- Friday, October 28th 12:00 PM.

The study will take about 20 minutes to an hour, though most sessions have lasted about 35 minutes. If the above times do not work, sessions are run most days at noon and 5pm and will be opened as other times fill. This study is primarily about economic decision making related to public goods. That is to say a good or service which everyone can benefit from.

AEC students may be interested to see how one facet of applied economic research is conducted. If you have any questions please contact the researcher for the study, Charlie Thompson, at thomchar@oregonstate.edu or (862) 432-334.

Job/Internship Posting Information:
When conducting your job or internship search it is important to be aware of any possible misrepresentations that may exist. Therefore, we encourage you to read the following information so that you avoid any unfortunate situations.

Oregon State University College of Agricultural Sciences (CAS) makes no representation, warranty or guarantee about the positions listed. CAS does not prescreen employment or internship opportunities that are submitted. By using the resources available, you are assuming full responsibility for your safety, security, wages, working conditions, fraudulent, or other aspects of any off-campus employment/internship opportunities that you discover while using CAS resources.

Auburn University’s National Science Foundation Research Traineeship (NRT) program on Climate Resiliency is accepting applications Now for Funded Trainees through Jan 9th, 2023.

Would you be interested in this enriching, interdisciplinary program focusing on climate resilience with many opportunities, including:

- $34,000 Annually in Stipends for up to 2 Years
- In-state and Out of State Tuition Waivers for up to 2 Years
- Customary Student Fees Waived for up to 2 Years
- Partnerships and Opportunities with Professional Stakeholders in Different Sectors (Internship Required for PhD candidates; Optional for Masters Candidates)
- Shared Student Experiences and Group Support within Graduate Studies and Beyond

Tomorrow, 10/20 they are hosting a virtual info session to answer any questions regarding the benefits to you, research and the application process. Here’s the info to add to your calendar now.

When: Thurs Oct 20th or Nov 17th from 5:30pm-6:30pm *stay as long or as little as needed
Where: Zoom https://auburn.zoom.us/j/85918735537

You are welcome to invite any friends, colleagues or advisors interested in the program to attend as well.

Check out this short NRT video including testimonials from their Trainees about this enhancement to their Auburn graduate school experience.

That is all I have for now. Have a great week.

Tjodie