Students,

Welcome to the shortest academic week of the year. Hope you are all doing well. Just wanted to let you know that I will send the reminder about Winter Term registration after this. There are no classes this Thursday or Friday. Here are some announcements.

Title: OSU Environmental Council Meeting
Date: November 19
Time: 6:00pm
Place: SEC 250 (ASOSU Suite)
Description:
ASOSU Environmental Affairs is back with some new announcements! Join us for an update on the environmental initiatives happening on campus, and voice your own thoughts on how OSU can become more sustainable! Free Benny’s Donuts will be provided! Vegan options available.

Job/Internship Posting Information:
When conducting your job or internship search it is important to be aware of any possible misrepresentations that may exist. Therefore, we encourage you to read the following information so that you avoid any unfortunate situations.
Oregon State University College of Agricultural Sciences (CAS) makes no representation, warranty or guarantee about the positions listed. CAS does not prescreen employment or internship opportunities that are submitted. By using the resources available, you are assuming full responsibility for your safety, security, wages, working conditions, fraudulent, or other aspects of any off-campus employment/internship opportunities that you discover while using CAS resources.

Beaver Career Portal Link:
Here is a link from the College of Agricultural Sciences website about the Beaver Career Portal.
http://agsci.oregonstate.edu/academics/careers

Job, Internship and Scholarship Opportunities:
Here is the link for jobs and internships. Please check it out.

OSU ScholarDollars: Oregon State’s new online scholarship search and application system, ScholarDollars, is now accepting applications for more than $50 million in 2019-20 scholarship funds. OSU students may complete one application to be considered for more than 1,600 campus-based scholarship opportunities. Students are encouraged to submit their ScholarDollars applications between Nov. 1, 2018, and Feb. 1, 2019, to maximize the number of scholarships for which they will be considered. Call 541-737-1125 or visit https://scholarships.oregonstate.edu/scholardollars.

Applications are being accepted for the Summer 2019 Public Policy + Economics Academic Internship Program in Washington, DC. Hosted by The Fund for American Studies, the program includes:

- Undergraduate academic credit from George Mason University
Internship placement focused on public policy or economics in the Washington, DC Metro Area

- Fully furnished on-campus housing in the heart of Washington, DC

Leadership Scholars Program – Full Scholarships Available: January 15 Deadline
Through this new scholarship program, TFAS will provide more than 40 full scholarships for top students to participate in our summer program. More information may be found at www.DCinternships.org/LSP.

Please share the announcement below with undergraduate students interested in spending the summer in Washington, DC. More information on our programs may be found at www.DCinternships.org/PublicPolicy. Please contact me with any questions.

LIVE. LEARN. INTERN in Washington, DC this Summer!
Public Policy + Economics Academic Internship Program
Hosted by The Fund for American Studies
www.DCinternships.org/PublicPolicy
Full Scholarships (Leadership Scholars Program) Deadline: January 15
Priority Deadline: February 12

Spend your summer in Washington, DC and prepare for your future! The 8-week program allows students to intern in the field of public policy while earning academic credit in economics and government.

LIVE
You will live just blocks from the national monuments, State Department and White House on the campus of George Washington University. Fully furnished housing and roommate matching is provided as part of our comprehensive program.

LEARN
Earn course credit while you intern! You will earn 3 to 9 academic credits this summer. Our unique curriculum is designed to complement your DC experience with upper level government, foreign policy and economics courses. Academic course credit is provided through George Mason University and taught by top rated faculty from GMU and other top local universities.

INTERN
An internship is one of the most important investments you can make in your future. Based on your interests and skills, you will be placed in an internship in the Washington, DC area. We have been creating academic internship experiences for almost 50 years and work with over 300 top organizations in DC.

Internship placements include:
- Federal agencies
- Congressional offices
- Policy groups and think tanks
• Government relations offices
• Non-governmental and nonprofit organizations

CONNECT
Who you know does matter - especially when it comes to your future job search. Our comprehensive program is designed so you can make valuable professional connections and practice your networking skills in a real-world setting.

We offer a number of networking opportunities to enhance your internship experience and maximize your time in DC:
• Mentor Program with DC professionals
• Professional Development Seminars
• Roundtable Discussions + Networking Receptions
• Site Briefings at key Washington Institutions including Capitol Hill, Federal Reserve and State Department

ALUMNI TESTIMONIALS
“Every week there’s something new, something that will help my future wherever it may lead. Everything from meeting TFAS alumni to hearing what grad school recruiters are looking for has helped me understand what I want to do with my future. I have made several professional contacts through these events and have already started to reach out to them. There is no way I could have been able to interact with this variety of people just going through the summer with a normal D.C. internship.”
Conner Foote, William Jewell College
Intern, Navajo Nation

“My internship was an amazing opportunity; not only did I get to develop skills that are crucial in the professional world, but it opened doors that I can access in the future. It gave me the opportunity to meet individuals that provided me with new perspectives on the field I am interested in.”
Dacia Medley, Florida Atlantic University
Intern, U.S. Department of Agriculture

FULL/PARTIAL SCHOLARSHIPS + APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS
The Fund for American Studies strives to make the programs accessible and affordable to the best and brightest students regardless of financial status. Scholarships are awarded based on need and merit with over 80% of students receiving full or partial funding. Full scholarships are available through our Leadership Scholars Program. The Leadership Scholars Summer Program deadline is January 15 and the Priority Deadline is February 12. To learn more and to begin an online application, please visit www.DCinternships.org. Questions can be directed to admissions@tfas.org or 202.986.0384.

Job Opportunities in Human Services Resource Center:
Please help us spread the word about this opportunity at the Human Services Resource Center: We are looking for three students to help us with various projects through the rest of the academic year – our existing staff is overwhelmed and overstretched and we need more students to help us serve students!

We are looking for the following:

A Food Pantry Assistant
A Textbook Lending Program Assistant
An Event and Program Planning Assistant

All positions will be cross-trained heavily to help where needed. For the first term or two, all of these roles can expect to do many of the following:

- Working at our front desk, learning how to assist students with basics, answer common questions
- Basic food pantry operations: how to make a food box, helping with deliveries, helping with food pantry nights/shopping days
- Cross training and basic collaboration with other HSRC student team members

These three positions will also fall into one of the following three individual roles:

1. Food Pantry Assistant: This person will provide additional support to food pantry projects, assisting the Food Pantry Organizer with needed tasks, but generally mostly supporting the HSRC Food Pantry. This would be a great role for a student interested in food justice, food sovereignty, nutrition, food security, health promotion, retail/merchandising, non-profits, etc.

2. Textbook Lending Program Assistant: the student who currently oversees the HSRC Textbook Lending Program will be graduating in May and we are hoping that the student hired into this role can work alongside current staff to learn processes and help make a transition to a new student staff as seamless as possible. This role is one of the most technical we have - it involves some database work, pulling some reports, and some skill with Microsoft excel (more than your average student may know). This would be a great role for a student interested in technology, engineering, business/operations, etc. Any other student, interested in justice or educational access, and who isn’t afraid of learning new, somewhat intimidating computer skills/processes would also be well suited to this role.

3. Events and Programming Assistant: This person will help plan events and workshops at the HSRC as we built out having more conversations about socioeconomic identity, classism and as we provide more skills workshops for our students (cooking classes, budgeting etc). This would be a good role for any student who wants to plan events and is interested in economic justice, social justice and/or topics related to food security, housing affordability and the challenges of being under-resourced while in college.
The HSRC anticipates paying these students $11.75 to start and if they return to their role next year, it’s likely that they’ll then be earning $12.75.

Students must apply through the OSU jobs page for each position they are interested in. First priority for review of applications will be Dec 1 – we are hoping to hire and have these staff in place by start of Winter term.

That is all I have for now.

Have a great week and Happy Thanksgiving.

Tjodie