Students,

Hope everyone is doing okay with your classes, midterms, etc. Here are some announcements for this week and I will be sending out the Winter Term Registration info shortly.

Last day to change to S/U grading or withdraw from a course:
The last day to change to S/U grading or withdraw from a course is Friday, November 9. You can withdraw online, it would be just like dropping a class, however, it will say withdraw and the W goes on your transcript, this won't calculate into your GPA. For changing to S/U grading you will need my signature on a form. I have forms in my office. The forms get turned into the Registrar's Office.

Internship Presentations for Fall Term:
Here is the schedule for internship presentations this week. You are welcome to attend. The internship presentations will be in our conference room 200C Ballard Extension Hall.

Time  Date: Tuesday, October 23
9:00 a.m.  Victoria Adams (3 Degrees, Inc.)

Title: Trial of the century: Juliana Vs US.

Where: MU Main Lounge

When: October 25, 6:00pm

Blurb: For 3 years, 21 youth plaintiffs have been fighting to secure the legal right to a safe climate by suing the federal government. They argue that it has violated the youngest generation’s constitutional rights to life, liberty, and property through its affirmative actions that cause climate change. After overcoming multiple writs of mandamus by the Trump administration to stop the trial from taking place, the youth will finally have their day in court on October 29 in Eugene. Youth plaintiffs Levi and Journey, as well as one of the lawyers from the team, will stop in Corvallis to talk about what has been called the “Trial of the Century” and how students can support the landmark case. ASOSU will also be providing vans to take students to Eugene for the rally, leaving at 3:30pm on October 29. Space is limited so sign up here. Here is a link to the Facebook Event.

October 27 – Women in Agriculture Conference: Pump Up Your Financial Fitness
All-day gathering of women farmers focused on cash flow and prioritization. You will learn strategies to start projections for the coming year, monitor cash flow against actual income, and manage family living expenses. Learn to tackle the spreadsheet!

8:30am-3:30pm
Marion County Extension Office
November 1 – Business Management: Record Keeping for Small Farmers
Business management class tailored to the needs of small farmers. This three-hour workshop will focus on what every business needs to be sustainable: good records and how to keep them. Chemeketa AgriBusiness Program will cover record keeping, enterprise budgets, and business plans.
2:00pm-5:00pm
